

Contents

PREFACE: REFLECTIONS .....	Harry D. Boonin	ix
INTRODUCTION .....		xi
POTPOURRI .....
Freya Joins the Kahn Klan .....	Freya Blitstein Maslov	2
Finding her birth family uncovers seven brothers and sisters
Evelyne Reclaims Her Identity .....	Gary Mokotoff	8
A child survivor of the Holocaust locates family and returns to Judaism
The Diary of Miriam Hanania .....	Batya Unterschatz	22
Locating the owner of a Holocaust-era diary has a surprising ending
A Priest In The Family? .....	Annie Wolkin	25
How a Polish Catholic family acquired a Jewish surname
Children Under 16 Unaccompanied by a Parent:
The Family Zuser .....	Valery Bazarov and Marian Smith	26
Authorities were suspicious; two of the children in this Jewish family were black
Yes, Virginia, There Was a Sean Ferguson .....	Gary Mokotoff	33
The origin of this well-known tale of a Jewish immigrant
PEOPLE
Max .....	Gary Mokotoff	36
He was married at least six times, four times consecutively and twice concurrently
Tracings of an Unlucky Man .....	Judith Saul Stix	41
The challenge of tracing an ancestor whose name was recorded with many spellings
Grandpa Didn't Tell the Truth .....	Sallyann Amdur Sack	45
Revelations of an aging grandparent uncovers the true family history
Three Cousins .....	Gladys Steinfeld Krongelb	47
Three young girls, all cousins, and the paths they followed during the Holocaust period
Three Benzions, Three Normans And the
Devastation of World War II .....	Michael Richman	52
The affect of World War II on the lives of three cousins
Leonard .....	Gary Mokotoff	55
He was sent by his parents to England during World War II for safe keeping
Gustavo .....	Chava Agmon	56
Helping a Christian uncover his distinguished Jewish ancestry
Serendipity Answers "Who Was Benny Ross?" .....	Rick Liftig	58
Tracing a vaudevillian relative
I Never Heard My Grandmother Sing .....	Harry D. Boonin	60
A tribute to his grandmother
The Last Mokotowski in Poland .....	Gary Mokotoff	64
Was there anyone with the family name left in the Old Country?

FAMILY .....
The Vagaries of War .....	Carol Davidson Baird	66
The fate of patriotic German Jews in the Nazi era
Finding a Family: A Tribute to My Father .....	Kathy Markell Britton	71
A Christian discovers her father's Jewish ancestry
The Quest for the Topf Family .....	Sophie Caplan	77
A Holocaust survivor searches for the family she never knew
On Helping A Relative Find His Father .....	Wayne Pines	92
Using a photograph to help an inquirer locate his father
Ain't Nothing Like the Living Thing, Baby! .....	Debra Katz Klein	94
Uncovering the unusual lives of family members
So You Think It Is Impossible .....	Carol Rombro Rider	98
Searching for relatives in Argentina
Uncovering the Real Family Name .....	Paul H. Silverstone	101
The original name was not Silverstone
The Cortissoz Diary .....	Gail Greenberg	102
A 200-year-old diary leads to a genealogical adventure
Grandma with the Funny Name .....	Rosanne Leeson	105
A family reunion for the Hemmerdinger family
Our Family's Link to the Civil War .....	Stephanie Wroblewski Isaacs	108
A soldier who died at Andersonville prison may be a relative
A Jewish Civil War Veteran Finally Receives a Visitor .....	Alexander Woodle	112
Honoring an ancestor who fought in the Civil War
On the Trail of Uncle Herschel, The Jewish Gaucho .....	Scott D. Seligman	116
Not every Jewish immigrant to the New World was a tailor
Lost and Found .....	Roslyn Sherman Greenberg	125
A genealogist faces the Holocaust
How I Learned That Rashi Was My Ancestor .....	Asher Bar-Zev	128
The link between the author and an 11th-century rabbi
BACK TO THE OLD COUNTRY .....
An Incident in L'viv .....	Victor Armony	134
An Argentinean Jew confronts anti-Semitism in Ukraine
A Trip to the Shtetl of My Ancestors .....	Roseanna Tandler Worth	137
Visiting an ancestral village during the Soviet Union era
Dedication of the Fragments from Roudnice .....	Carol Davidson Baird	150
Memorializing the presence of the Jewish community of a town in the Czech Republic
Genealogical Adventure .....	Melody Amsel-Arieli	154
A trip to the towns of ancestry in Slovakia
Number 10 Forrasvolgy Street .....	Viviana Grosz	158
A house in Miskolc, Hungary, has family history
Searching for Roots and Finding Much More .....	Howard Margol	165
Visiting a town in the Old Country uncovers lost family

Making Lemonade Out of Lemons .....	Howard Margol	169
You travel thousands of miles to the Old Country and find nothing; then what?
Family Footprints in Lithuania .....	Daniel A. Kirschner	175
A trip to many towns in Lithuania
CRYPTO-JEWS .....
I Am a Marrano .....	Anne Cardoza	180
What it means to be in a family with a 500-year-old history of being secret Jews
Additional Stories of Crypto-Jews .....		184
Short stories about people who discover their crypto-Jewish heritage
A Painful Portuguese Odyssey.....	Rufina Bernardetti Silva Mausenbaum	186
History of a marrano family
The Jews of the Canary Islands .....	Gary Mokotoff	189
History of the crypto-Jews of this tiny island chain
LUCK .....
Is It Really Luck? .....	Sallyann Amdur Sack	194
One viewpoint on how luck is involved in family history research
On Coincidence and Luck .....	René Loeb	197
Another viewpoint on how luck is involved in family history research
Is It Really Luck?.....	Gary Mokotoff	200
A third viewpoint on how luck is involved in family history research
GENEALOGY
Yippee! .....	Mort Rumberg	202
Overexcitement at a discovery can lead to an embarrassing moment
How Does a Genealogist Know
When He's Found Ms. Right? .....	Mark W. Gordon	203
An analysis of the compatibility between genealogical research and married life
The Genealogist as "Hit Man": Kaddish for Jakob .....	Peter Lande	205
A genealogist fulfills the request of a client who "wanted a relative dead"
False Leads, False Hope: A Cautionary Tale .....	Ann Gleich Harris	208
The excitement of discovery is shattered by reality
Making a Mother Appear Out of Thin Air .....	Steve Stein	210
Helping a brother-in-law discover his birth mother
How I Found Out I Was Not Related to Jan Murray .....	Varda Epstein	214
A family legend destroyed
Sometimes You Have To Be Told To Ask .....	Alan Steinfeld	218
Tracing the reason for a family suicide
Preponderance of Evidence:
The Curious Case of Jakob Mokotowicz .....	Gary Mokotoff	221
Preponderance of evidence can sometimes lead to wrong conclusions
Who Rests in the Philadelphia Cemetery?
A HIAS/INS Case Study .....	Valery Bazarov and Marian L. Smith	223
He was deported from Ellis Island, yet he was buried in Philadelphia

Finding Tevel Leibowitz .....	Ira Leibowitz	227
Persistence and patience win the day
Seven Guiding Principles for Family Research .....	Judith Saul Stix	230
Guidelines for doing genealogical research
The Virtue of Persistence: A Story of Discovery and Some Rules Learned Along the Way .....	Sam Schleman	233
Advice on how to do family history research
Genealogical Research by Telephone .....	Bonia Shur	237
Locating relatives by telephone during the Soviet Union era
Beware of Both Documented and Oral Histories .....	Manny Hillman	241
Why evidence must always be challenged and evaluated
Jewish Caricatures in Polish Vital Statistics Records .....		246
An artistic registrar embellishes a Jewish birth register
A Spoof on Jewish Surnames .....		247
A 19th-century historian plays games with unusual Jewish surnames

HOLOCAUST

End of the Search .....	Steven Byars	250
The start of a genealogical quest has a rapid ending
A Note from a Train to Auschwitz .....	Bernard I. Kouchel	251
A plea from a woman deported from France to Auschwitz
My Father Was Not an Orphan After All: Building a Family Tree After the Holocaust .....	Sara Wenger	252
The author finds family after her father's death
Closing the Circle: A Personal Encounter with the Holocaust .....	Randy Daitch	257
Tracking the fate of family
The Lady in the Vienna Telephone Book .....	Arye Barkai	259
She had the family surname, but who was she?
How (and Why) I Wrote a Yizkor Book .....	Michael Nevins	261
What motivates a person to write a Holocaust memorial book?
Peretz Amsel (1898–1942): One Man's Holocaust .....	Melody Amsel-Arieli	264
Tracking a relative's fate during the Holocaust
How Far Should a Genealogist Go? .....	Karen Roekard	268
Tracking a relative's fate during the Holocaust
When Good Men Did Nothing .....	Olga Zabłudoff	271
Restoring the remnants of the Jewish community of a Lithuanian town		